On the afternoon of April 19, Fung Kwok-hung, President of the Hong Kong Institute of Property Managers, and Lu Lu, a teacher at Sunshine College, visited the Fujian Property Management Association for an exchange. Zhao Zheng, President of the Fujian Property Management Association, and Lin Changqing, Vice President, warmly received the guests and held a discussion in the conference room of Fujian Yongan Property Management Co. , Ltd. Zhang Qin, Deputy General Manager of Fuzhou Rongqiao Property Management Co., Ltd. Fuzhou Branch, Lin Jie, Training Specialist of Fujian Bern Property Management Co., Ltd., Wang Yanling, Secretary of the Party Branch of Fujian Yongan Property, and Li Dingyi, Sales Manager of Zhongwu Education, attended the symposium.

At the symposium, President Zhao Zheng, on behalf of the association, expressed a warm welcome to the Hong Kong property management colleagues for exchanges in Fujian, and introduced to President Feng Guoxiong and his party the relevant situation of the property management industry in our province, as well as the specific practices of the association in recent years in improving the professional quality of practitioners and expanding the scope of professional services. The two sides conducted in-depth exchanges and discussions on topics of common concern to the property management industry in both places, such as the construction of the property service team and talent cultivation. The participating representatives summarized their experiences and put forward suggestions. The meeting achieved the purpose of learning from each other's strengths, learning from each other, and improving the level of business management, and achieved the expected results.

During the discussion, the participating representatives were interviewed by the Legal Daily reporter on the implementation of the Fujian Property Management Regulations. President Zhao Zheng said in the interview that the newly revised Fujian Property Management Regulations have solved the problems of difficulty in establishing an owner's committee, difficulty in property collection, difficulty in using special maintenance funds, and difficulty in managing illegal parking in residential areas, and provided more favorable safeguards for owners and property service companies, which are more comprehensive, detailed, and humane. He emphasized that the Fujian Property Management Association will continue to implement the Fujian Property Management Regulations, increase industry strength, do a good job in third-party evaluation and the construction of the Fujian Residential Property Service Fee Reference System and related data model projects, optimize the property service industry environment, and promote the harmonious development of the property industry in our province.
